

PRESS RELEASE

PIAF (Peckham International Art Fair) is an ambitious art fair launching in London, 30 September to 5 October 2017.

PIAF is a not-for-profit platform for galleries, collectives and art initiatives held during London's busiest art week of the year. It coincides with Frieze Art Fair, which attracts more than 60,000 visitors eager to partake in a host of simultaneous cultural events across the city.

PIAF will host 15 galleries at Copeland Park, an industrial unit in the creative quarter of Peckham in south London.
